HOME HOSTED DINNER & FAMILY INTERACTION

Daily by appointment @ 19h00

When in Durban join your hosts, Leon & Desiree Rajoo for a unique Indian/South African experience. Treat your taste buds a variety of Indian treats and learn about the life and experience of a fourth and fifth generation Indian family. Surrounded by the ambience and warmth of burning clay lamps, you will get to meet and interact with our family. A fun interactive evening as you learn how to fold a samoosa, make a bunny chow and for those that are keen to drape a sari.

Apart from enjoying a sumptuous three course traditional South African / Indian meal, your evening will take you on a historical journey to learn why the largest Indian community, outside India, call the southernmost tip of Africa their home. This journey will allow you insight into the life of Mahatma Gandhi in South Africa as well as his contribution to our democracy. Our home is set in the heart of the typical Indian township of Phoenix.

Regrettably – No Alcohol is served.

.Subject to minimum 2 passengers

INDIAN COOKING INTERACTION:

Daily by appointment either lunch or dinner

A fun interactive cooking lesson as you learn the art of Indian cooking combining an array of spices. This culinary experience will take you on a journey of preparing an Indian 3 course meal. Learn how to make a samoosa. Learn the art of making roti (Indian Flatbread), complimented by a delicious curry and freshly made sambals, and end off the culinary experience by preparing an Indian Desert.

The highlight of the evening is when we sit down to enjoy the meals we have prepared as we enjoy the historical journey into the arrivals of the Indian Indentured labourers to the city of Durban.

At the end of the meal you will be presented with a certificate confirming your participation

Regrettably – No Alcohol is served.
